First Holy Communion

This weekend we celebrate First Holy Communion. We will have two sessions: one at 10.30 am and the other at 2.30 pm. We pray that First Holy Communion will be the beginning of a continuous and fruitful relationship between the children and Jesus and we ask for the support of parents in this commitment.

New translation of the Roman Missal

Biblical influences

As we use the new translation we will perhaps notice more biblical connections than we have been used to. These words have been handed down to us over the centuries, and most of the words we speak at Mass are rooted in the Bible. When we gather for Mass, we are praying with words that have been given to us by our ancestors, who knew the Bible well and prayed it well. The new translation of the Missal tries to make the connections between the Bible and the Mass clearer than they are now.

Over the coming weeks we will be looking at some of the revised words we will be saying and hearing at Mass from the beginning of September.

Speaking up for CAFOD

Are you passionate about global justice issues and interested in speaking on behalf of CAFOD at Mass or other events. We are currently seeking to expand our team of speakers around the diocese. Please contact CAFOD Portsmouth Office at 01252 329385 or Portsmouth@cafod.org.uk to register interest. We will arrange a training day to suit your availability.
